CONSIDERAȚII GENERALE

Provocările generate de caracteristicile perioadei actuale transmit o stare de neliniște pe care cei mai mulți dintre noi o simțim dar de multe ori este imposibil să o definim. Învățământul superior din România a avut o evoluție care a tins mai degrabă să pună accent pe aspectele cantitative decât pe cele calitative, iar universitatea noastră nu a făcut excepție de la acest lucru.

Incoerența proceselor legislative și prea ușoara interpretare a legislației a condus la apariția și agravarea unor probleme ce țin de administrarea eficientă a resursei umane, probleme ce creionează o situație mai degrabă tensionată decât calmă în ceea ce privește orientarea spre maxim a atingerii potențialului capitalului uman din sfera academică.

O anumită opacitate în ceea ce privește circulația informațiilor creionează ideea că deciziile se iau în altă parte iar noi suntem doar spectatori în loc să fim participanți activi, ceea ce poate avea efecte negative accentuate pe termen mediu și lung.

Activitățile centrate pe educație, foarte importante pentru orice cadru didactic din învățământul superior, par a fi mai puțin importante în raport cu activitățile de cercetare științifică și cele administrative, ceea ce generează nemulțumiri mai mult sau mai puțin măconite precum și efecte care se pot agrava pe viitor.

Activitățile de cercetare științifică, deși sunt considerate cele mai importante din punct de vedere al promovării pe poziții superioare, par a reprezenta doar un scop în sine și nu ceea ce ar trebui să însemne ele pentru definirea caracteristicilor unui departament dintr-o universitate și cu atât mai puțin un factor al creșterii economice, așa cum ar trebui să fie.

Principialitatea acțiunilor la nivelul oricărei structuri existente la nivelul instituției noastre este la un nivel foarte ridicat din punct de vedere declarativ, dar realitatea indică o fluiditate mare la nivelul principiilor, de multe ori problemele fiind rezolvate mai degrabă pe baza excepțiilor decât pe cea a regulilor.

and the political culture with its accompanying values and norms are also important determinants of the political behavior of individuals. In other words, the political culture of a society influences the way in which its members act politically. This is true both at the individual level and at the collective level, with national political culture being the dominant factor.

Political culture is thus a broad concept, encompassing both individual and collective elements. It includes the beliefs, attitudes, and values of the population, as well as the political institutions and the political process. Political culture is influenced by many factors, including economic development, education, religion, and ethnicity. It is also shaped by historical events and by the political system in which it exists.

Political culture is an important factor in the political process, as it helps to determine the way in which citizens act politically. It is also important in the formation of political parties and in the development of political systems. Political culture is a complex and dynamic concept, and it is important to understand its various dimensions in order to fully appreciate its significance.

OBIECTIVE

1. Demararea unui proces de identificare a unor parametri cât mai apropiati de optim în ceea ce privește numărul de studenți gestionati direct (în cadrul programului de studiu EGCE) sau indirect de către cadrele didactice ale departamentului nostru
2. Creșterea nivelului de corelare între programele de studii la diferite niveluri în aşa fel încât să transmitem studenților și să le "conștientizăm" care sunt avantajele pe care le obțin dacă optează pentru a urma studiile în cadrul programelor noastre.
3. Demararea de acțiuni de atragere a elevilor buni către programele noastre de studii, element extrem de necesar în vederea creșterii calității acestor programe.
4. Adaptarea continuă a curriculei, în funcție de caracteristicile educaționale necesare mediului economic, social, cultural și politic.
5. Realizarea unui cadru coerent în ceea ce privește desfășurarea activităților didactice, coerentă la nivel de principii, cadrele didactice putând să-și adapteze în mod individual caracteristicile și modalitățile activităților de predare și seminarizare.
6. Îmbunătățirea caracteristicilor activității de cercetare științifică.
7. Îmbunătățirea activităților de colaborare cu alte entități, atât din țară cât și din străinătate.
8. Reducerea presiunii administrative în procesele de raportare afente proceselor educaționale și a celor de cercetare științifică.
9. Îmbunătățirea coeziunii la nivel departamental și interdepartamental.

After a few days of being disturbed by the boat, the birds were eventually able to get used to the boat and began approaching it more closely, even landing on it.

On July 20th, the first bird was seen to land on the boat, followed by a second bird a few minutes later. Both birds were seen to land on the boat, and the boat was moved to a different location to try to encourage them to land on the boat again.
