

TIMTED 2023

Current Economic Trends in Emerging and Developing Countries

Call for Papers TIMTED 2023

The Faculty of Economics and Business Administration, West University of Timisoara, and the East-European Center for Research in Economics and Business (ECREB) are pleased to invite you to attend the 7th edition of the International Conference "Current Economic Trends in Emerging and Developing Countries" (TIMTED 2023).

The 7th edition TIMTED 2023 (June 8-9, 2023) aims to bring together academics, researchers, Ph.D. students, as well as professionals from around the world.

ACCEPTED PAPERS

The authors may send full papers or extended abstracts. These will be first evaluated by the Conference reviewers. Extended abstracts of 1600 to 2200 words will have the same structure as full papers: introduction, literature review, methodology, results and conclusions. A maximum of two papers may be submitted to the conference by every participant, as sole author or co-author. Only original papers are accepted, on subjects related to all fields of economics and business administration.

The conference aims to provide participants with a high-quality scientific context and to facilitate debates and the exchange of ideas and opinions on contemporary social problems: globalization, the capricious and dynamic organizational environment, the development of digital technologies etc.

The conference encourages interdisciplinary research grounded in economics and business but related to other fields such as political science, digital technologies etc.

MAIN TOPICS

Although these are the proposed topics, the conference welcomes papers focusing on other topics. However, when choosing the title, it is recommended to consider the following areas or topics:

- Accountancy and Audit
- Business Information Systems
- Economics
- Finance
- Management
- Marketing
- Tourism
- Trade and International Affair
